“If daily you feel a sense of gratitude for the blessings of this life it will be a cushion and buffer for when challenges arise.” - anon

The last three days of last week I was at home unable to come to work. Having experienced Sciatica pain for the first time in any seriousness, I would not wish the experience on anyone. Now those that know me, also recognize that a high threshold of pain is not one of my strengths. However, being unable to move for two days and the practical realities of not being able to get off your back that come with this, the experience was one of the most painful I have had.

By Saturday I was able to walk again and am now coming good. That great feeling of returning to ‘normal’ gives you a heightened appreciation of what you take for granted on a daily basis: the great feeling of being o.k. !!!!!

I am sure many of us completely understand that fantastic feeling of coming out the other side of feeling under the weather, from time to time, from over indulgence in celebratory drinks.

We cannot genuinely appreciate the daily gifts of our lives if we have never experienced the disappointment, pain and sadness that is the other side of the same coin.

Maybe one purpose of pain and sadness is to allow us to fully understand what joy and flourishing really are?

Maybe their purpose is a stark reminder to kick us in the backside to appreciate, celebrate and make the most of the moments each day that we often do not appreciate until we go without them for a period of time?

My beliefs about the role of education and what in our Catholic Schools should be a priority, has only really been clarified once I had children. My shift from the importance of academic success to emotional, social, physical and mental wellness as a priority only resulted through the love of my children and learning with them as they have grown.

When everything is peeled back, stripped back to the heart of the matter their wellbeing takes priority. Obviously the development of academic and more formal skills is important –it would be ridiculous to suggest otherwise - but it is not the main ingredient in the future success and wellbeing of our children.
From the Principal:

I am currently in the middle of close to 60 Kindergarten interviews for 2015. When asking parents what they see as a priority for them and the reasons they are choosing a Catholic School, and our school in particular, the overwhelming response is around our focus on the whole person.

It is easy to accept this philosophically, it is much harder to accept in reality, when having to balance out the limited hours of each school day. This will continue to be our challenge going forward as a school- continuing to re-evaluate the balance we have across all areas and domains of learning, both informal and formal.

I continue to believe in encouraging moments of disappointment, pain and sadness as opportunities to be grateful and appreciative of all that is great and good in our lives. Understanding and appreciation of this has real implications for the quality of life our students will experience through their lives once they leave S.H.S.

Interschool Cross Country Carnival:

This year we have initiated having Captains for our Interschool Swimming, Cross Country and Athletics Carnival. With our House Captains taking on a leadership role across the year we thought it appropriate to also recognise students who are leaders through their sporting endeavours. The Carnival will be this Tuesday. Mrs. McLeod and Mr. Anderson will be the teachers on duty at the Interschool Carnival.

We wish to congratulate Olivia Roney and Bailey Gillow as our School Cross Country Captains for 2014.

Dogs on School Grounds:

At a recent meeting of Principal's of Catholic Primary Schools W.H.S. discussion was had around Dogs in and on school grounds. With different children and adults not always being comfortable with dogs in close proximity, we were encouraged to have a consistent approach across our schools and the Dog Control Act of 2000 states that dogs are " A person must not take a dog into – (a) any grounds of a school, preschool, kindergarten, creche or other place for the reception of children without the permission of a person in charge of the place; or...any area within 10 metres of a children's playground.

We are asking members of our school community to refrain from bringing dogs into our school grounds. One exception we are comfortable with is when a child wants to bring in a new puppy to share with the class. Please if you have any queries do not hesitate to contact me.

DONATIONS- LOOSE PARTS PLAY / MILK CRATES:

We are asking parents to please donate some items to our school. These items are going to be used to create a loose parts play area in our playground where kids can build, play, tinker -offering a space for students in our school that play in this way.

Items we would love to have donated include:
- milk crates, as many as possible
- pieces of material
- pieces of timber/plank that require more than one child to move
- shells, pieces of tyre, tubing, string, rope, etc etc
- blue tarpaulins
- mats

We will store the donations in our cellar and bring them out in the coming weeks once we have created the space (at the back of the Grade 6 area below the Grade 6 basketball court.

Dear Parents,

Mini Vinnie’s are asking families that have any good quality unwanted blankets, clothes or non-perishable food items to bring them to their classes for collection by our Mini Vinnie’s team. This will go a long way to making somebody that is in need a little warmer this Winter.

All items will be very much appreciated!
Tuesday Book Club
Finders Keepers
by Emily Rodda

“The quizmaster opened his arms and laughed, ‘Patrick!’ he shouted. ‘Are you ready to play . . . Finders Keepers?’ Patrick’s eyes bulged. He licked his lips, swallowed. ‘Yes,’ he squeaked. ‘Well, come on over!’ bawled the quizmaster. And then everything went black.

Patrick is a Finder, someone who can cross the barrier between two worlds and retrieve lost objects. He’s been chosen in a game of chance, but he’ll need more than luck to win, and time is running out.”

The next meeting will be Tuesday 17th June from 3:15pm - 4:30pm.
Everyone welcome from Grades 5 and 6.

LOST PROPERTY

There are several unnamed items in Lost Property – if you are missing any items of clothing, lunchbox’s etc, please check the Lost Property at the bottom of the stairs below the office.
