This week is Catholic Education Week. Catholic Education Week is an important time of the year where we are provided with an opportunity to celebrate achievements and strengths throughout the 38 schools in the State as well as individual contributions and service across the system. The theme for 2022 is 'Proclaim with Joy'. 'Proclaim with Joy' is a theme which encompasses Catholic education's mission of striving to provide students with an engaging education, an education that builds capacity in our students and empowers them to uphold Catholic values throughout their lives, celebrating with gratitude the joy and goodness that happens in their lives.

Catholic Education Week is also an opportunity to give thanks to our wider community and the gifts they bring. Thank you to the parents and community members who work in partnership with our school. We give thanks to our Board Members, Parents and Friends, those who volunteer in classrooms, sports carnivals, fairs and camps. Thank you to all our staff at Sacred Heart, a staff who invest in our students in every aspect of their education and lives. And of course none of this would be possible without the students of Sacred Heart. To be able to work in a school where students inquire, approach the day with curiosity, passion, resilience, awe and wonder is a blessing.

During the week, on Wednesday, our Grade 6 students attended a mass with students from other schools in Launceston. In the afternoon staff attended the Catholic Education Commission Tasmanian (CECT) Award Ceremony. This year Mr Barry Nas, accepted by Mrs Wendy Nas, was honoured with a Recognition Award due to his Outstanding Service as an Employee within Catholic Education.

Please see below an overview of Mr Barry Nas' career as outlined by Catholic Education Tasmania;

The late Barry Nas was a music teacher across Sacred Heart Catholic School for 39 years, and St Thomas More's Catholic School, Newstead for 35 years. But anyone who worked with Barry would know that he was so much more than that. He started out in the Catholic education system as a young male, and early in his career as a teacher having only taught at a Department of Education school for a couple of years, but once he started in Catholic education, he knew that he had found a home. Wendy Nas, Barry's wife, explained how much he loved teaching at Sacred Heart and St Thomas More's. "He loved his role. Teaching music was his passion. He felt it was his job to make sure that everybody enjoys music and I think he did a pretty good job of that."

When Barry started in Catholic education, he was one of the only males that was on staff. There was the Principal, a couple of Christian Brothers, a groundsman and of course, Barry. He had an ability to inspire and uplift the children that he worked with to help develop a love of music, he had an incredible ability to be able to identify and nurture talent within his students and encourage all students to have a go. The kids that he would work with, even those that didn't enjoy music and said that they couldn't do it, were found to realise after a couple of lessons with Mr Nas that they could.

One of the many things that Barry prided himself on doing on a day to day basis, is being a positive person for everybody. The staff that he worked with viewed him as a humble, compassionate, honest, patient, and respectful person, who always had time to help a staff member with whatever issue they were having in their life. His wife believes that the keyboard was his favourite instrument, but he had the ability to play every instrument he attempted to play. "Oh, his favourite was the keyboard, but he prided himself on dabbling in everything. He was a bit of a show pony really."

Barry had a long list of accomplishments throughout his career. These include being asked to feature on one of Andrew Chinn's albums with a select few students from Sacred Heart and St Thomas More's, being the Principal Musician and Choirmaster for the Catholic Education Week Masses, leading Rock and Roll Night for four Launceston Catholic Schools events, being an active participant and supporter of Sacred Heart Parents and Friends Association, and of course the Chocolate Wheel Coordinator at the Sacred Heart and St Thomas More's fairs. "He was always front and centre of anything that was school based. He loved taking hundreds of dollars off people at the Chocolate Wheel at the school fair, even when they didn't really want to. You would walk past, and he reminds you that he knew your mother, or he knew your brother. He just had the gift of the gab."

Wendy said Barry's biggest piece of advice was to believe in the student. Giving a student a chance to thrive in his music class was something that he prided himself on being able to do, and he implored all educators to do the same. He empowered children, staff, and parents by his actions, and always tried to see the good in everyone. That was Barry Nas.

We thank Barry for his Outstanding Contribution to Catholic Education!

BookWeek

Theme: Dreaming with eyes open...

Dates: August 20-26

This year is a dress up year to celebrate Book Week, Please start talking to your children about their favourite book character and what they may have in the wardrobe that would represent that character. No need to buy an elaborate costume. Creative costumes are encouraged. There will be a whole school parade at 9am and buddy readings on Wednesday 24th. Stay tuned.

West Ham Soccer Camp

On July 17th and July 18th English soccer club West Ham United held a player scouting camp at the Launceston City Soccer Club. Players from any soccer club in northern Tasmania, aged between 7-16 could attend. There were four coaches and two of them had flown over from the UK. Over the two days we did ball skills, shooting and possession / formation. At the end we played a big game. Over eighty players attended and regional camps like this have been held all over Australia and New Zealand. Campbell Woodgate and I were lucky to be selected by the West Ham coaches. We will be attending the national camp in Queensland next month and players that are selected from that camp get invited to the West Ham United Soccer Club in the UK. Campbell and I are so excited and nervous to be going.

Jesus Our Shepherd, fills us with Love, Goodness and Mercy

Dear Families,

Here we are already in the midst of Term 3. Our children are fully immersed in the Catholic life of Sacred Heart. They are engaged in the Good News for Living curriculum, focusing on the Sacraments, why they're important, the symbols and what they mean in our lives. All our classes are visiting our church to explore the Sacraments, symbols and learn about their faith.

Last week our Grade 4 students participated in the statewide Religious Literacy Assessment. This information gives the CET team a deeper understanding of what our children are learning and retaining in our RE curriculum.

Our Sacramental candidates have been learning and preparing their hearts and minds to make the Confirmation and receive their First Eucharist. We wish them well in their final preparations and pray their hearts open to receiving these special gifts, as they grow in their faith and love of Jesus.

All our classes are celebrating a liturgy in the church with our priests. Our liturgy this term asks the children to see how they can do the work of Jesus and how they can share his love with others.

Our Prep to Grade 2 children have explored the Spirit of Jesus in their specialist MJR lessons last Friday. Children explored where they see Jesus' spirit in their own lives and the lives of others.

This week our Year 6 students represented Sacred Heart at the Catholic Education Week Mass. The Archbishop led Mass and we celebrated the life of Mary McKillop and considered the selfless work she did in Australia.

Our spiritual life is indeed rich. Thank you for allowing your child to grow in their faith and love of God with us.
In Peace, Love and Happiness, Anna Davie REC

WORKING WITH VULNERABLE PEOPLE REGISTRATION

If parents do not have registration or registration is pending you will not be able to volunteer and attend the excursion or school event. This is something that we do not want to have to do but as legislation and system policy we need to adhere to.

How to apply for a WWVP and Number

1. Complete the online application form www.justice.tas.gov.au/working_with_children
2. Print the "Application Receipt" which is generated when the application has been completed in full
3. Take the "Application Receipt" to a Service Tasmania shop, pay the fee ($17.60) and have your 100 point check to confirm identity

Once your registration has been approved and you receive your WWVP card, please bring it to the school office so your name, registration number and expiry date can be recorded and verified.
