Green Day

On Friday at Sacred Heart we celebrated 'Green Day'. The day began with a liturgy in the Presentation Gym. What a great experience it was to see a 'sea of green' as the students came together and participated in prayer and singing. After the liturgy students participated in class based activities to assist in their knowledge and understanding of Nano Nagle and in the afternoon connected with their buddies.

Nano Nagle was born in Ireland in 1718. She later became a pioneer of Catholic Education despite legal inhibitions in a time when Catholic children were not permitted to attend school. Nano Nagle originated from a wealthy family and was able to assist students, who were denied a Catholic Education, to travel to Paris so they could receive a Catholic Education. She eventually opened a Catholic school in Ireland, run secretly to provide for the poor and with the motivation of helping them to live better lives. Nano Nagle spent her life in service, living out the motto 'not words, but deeds' and demonstrating extreme compassion, courage and faith. The Presentation Sisters were founded and eventually came to Launceston to set up what was the beginning of our school. At Sacred Heart we continue to live out the values and charism of the Presentation Sisters, supporting and encouraging our students to do the same.

First Eucharist

Congratulations to the following students who received their First Eucharist on Sunday. It was a wonderful celebration and we are grateful to everyone who supported the following students in this important step in their faith journey.

Tyler Barrett, Logan Bradford, Zara Cearley, Adam Clark, Byron Digney, Cameron Franks, Lillian Frappell, Georgina Hart, Lexi Johntson, Molly Jordan, Fletcher Luttrell, James Lynch, Eily Madden, Maddison Smith, Owen Richardson, Sylvester Szyrka, Harrison Vinar, Callum Wright and Isobel Zegveld.

Footy Colours Day

Traditionally we have had Footy Colours Day on the last day of term 3. Whilst the grand final is earlier this year the day will remain on the last day of term.

Intentions for 2023

At Sacred Heart, whilst our focus is on 2022, we are planning for 2023 in regards to enrolments. If you are not planning on continuing at Sacred Heart in 2023 can you please let us know via email adele.murphy@catholic.tas.edu.au by the end of the term to ensure we have the correct numbers moving forward.

Literacy News at SHS

CET Storytelling Showcase

As mentioned previously we at Sacred Heart participated in the CET Storytelling Showcase Competition.

This year we completed "Drabbles"; stories using only 100 words.

The following students were selected, from a large number of entries, as our winners.

P/2 Isla Palmer, Elodie Palmer, Louis Gul

3/4 Eily Madden, Lillian Greenwood, Hunter Howard, Mia Adams

5/6 Tim Innes, Sophie Macri, George Durkin.

Congratulations to all our participants. Thank you to all our staff who supported the writing process. Our winners will have their Drabbles sent on to the CET Statewide Competition. We wish them the best of luck.

Jesus Our Shepherd, fills us with Love, Goodness and Mercy

As we approach the end of Term 3 we consider how our children have developed in their faith journey. The liturgy we have shared with our parish priest in the church, has asked us to reflect on what we do when we make mistakes, knowing that God forgives us. As Jesus' followers we aim to reflect on our choices, asking what would Jesus do; how would He behave, how would he show His love? In our learning, our friendships, our families, we always have Jesus to guide us - may we remember this as we move forward on our journeys in faith.

On Friday we celebrated Green Day. A day where we prayed and gave thanks to Nano Nagle. We learned about her devotion to helping others, particularly educating the Catholic children of Ireland. Her work, passion and influence she had on others, saw her found the Presentation Sisters, who came to Launceston and opened Sacred Heart. We shared a liturgy, raised money for those less fortunate and were inspired by Nano. It was a wonderful day of thanks and celebration.

Sunday saw 19 of our children receive their First Holy Communion. We congratulate these children and their families, and send our prayers and best wishes as they forge forwards in their faith journeys. Thank you to the parish for celebrating with them, to their families for supporting and leading them in their preparations, to our Parents and Friends and staff who assisted on the day.

Congratulations to...

Tyler Barrett, Isobel Zegveld, Logan Bradford, Lara Cearley, Adam Clark, Byron Digney, Cameron Franks, Lillian Frappell, Georgina Hart, Lexi Johnston, Molly Jordan, Fletcher Luttrell, James Lynch, Eily Madden, Maddison Reilly-Smith, Owen Richardson, Sylvester Szpyrka, Harrison Vinar and Callum Wright.
