

Dear Parish Family,

This week's Gospel passage begins by reminding us that Jesus is on his way (Luke 14:25) – on his way to Jerusalem to fulfil his mission by pouring himself out completely, for us and for our salvation. As he responds to the great crowds following him, Jesus challenges them about what it means, in reality, to be a disciple. Jesus' words are strong and confronting when we hear him say: If any person comes to me without hating his father, mother...(Luke 14:26). To be a disciple demands our all. Those who become disciples of Jesus must be committed exclusively to Him; they cannot be bound to anyone or anything else (Theological Dictionary of the New Testament IV, p.691). It is all or nothing. Hence the reference to carrying the cross and following Jesus (Luke 14:27), the examples of being properly prepared for the task (Luke 14:28-32) and the injunction: none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions (Luke 14:33).

Together with the whole Christian family we have just begun the Season of Creation, which is the annual ecumenical Christian celebration of God's gift of Creation. It runs from 1st September through to 4th October, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. In a special way during this time we unite with all Christians to pray for and protect our common home. This year let us join the global Christian family united in prayer and action around the theme: Listen to the Voice of Creation.

Our candidates for First Eucharist will be presented formally with The Lord's Prayer at our Parish Masses this weekend. We look forward to welcoming them fully to the table of the Lord over the weekend of 17th & 18th September. Together with their families, may they continue to grow in faith and be able to follow along the way with Jesus our Christ.

We pray in the psalm today: In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exalt and rejoice all our days (Psalm 89:14). No matter what challenges we face, may we remain confident in God's love and rejoice always to follow along the way of discipleship.

Fr Mark Freeman

"EVERY FAMILY NEEDS A FATHER – A FATHER WHO SHARES IN HIS FAMILY'S JOY AND PAIN, HANDS DOWN WISDOM TO HIS CHILDREN AND OFFERS THEM FIRM GUIDANCE AND LOVE."

PRAYER FOR FATHERS

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless all our fathers. May they be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honour them always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
