ANZAC Day

'It takes knowledge to understand others, but it needs a clear mind to know oneself. It takes strength to surpass others, but it requires a strong will to surpass oneself.' (Lao Tsu)

ANZAC Day has grown in significance with each passing year. I'm sure many of us wondered what would happen as some of the World War 1 veterans died. Would we still spend time honouring their legacy? Would the crowds still turn up to march and attend commemorations? Would children attend in school holidays?

My big 'takeaways' from Tuesday included

- Australians are enormously proud and respectful of what servicemen and women have done, and continue to do, for our country.
- Our children understand why it is important to provide a visual presence on ANZAC Day.
- Our families value the opportunity for the children of Sacred Heart to march, and give thanks, on one of Australia's most important days.
- I was proud to march alongside the children, parents and staff of our school community.

As we commence Term 2 at Sacred Heart I know I am privileged to be working with and for the children of Sacred Heart. I know our school community is a remarkable community made up of people who continue to work for the common good. This term when moments arise that challenge us, view them as opportunities for learning and growth, just as Jesus did 2023 years ago. Let's all be thankful that we live in a country where others have sacrificed their lives for others, let's all be grateful that we cohabit a school community that aspires to support the children to live their lives as Jesus challenges us.

Pupil Free Day - Staff Spirituality

Sacred Heart staff along with 25 other Catholic schools in Tasmania spent time exploring our spirituality on Monday. Facilitated from Hobart via ZOOM our theme was 'How to Grow in Faith'. Led by Father Michel Remery, a Dutch priest.

'How to Grow in Faith' is a program that encourages people to explore their questions about God, life, faith in an open-ended way, and in a confidential, supportive small- group context, to share their faith with others, and to be inspired to grow in their faith personally.

Mother's Day at SHS Wednesday 10th May

Wednesday 10th May Sacred Heart will be celebrating Mother's Day in and around classrooms. Save the date for an hour with your children.

Mums and friends will be able to enjoy time with their children either at 9-10am or 2-3pm.

Mother's Day Gifts

Thanks to the families who have already sent in gifts for Mother's Day. Please remember we need every family to send a gift per child so that we have 461 gifts for children to purchase. So far we have received less than 50 gifts. This means we still need more than 400 gifts to be sent to school before next Wednesday.

Thanks in anticipation.

Winter Uniform

Thanks to our families for ensuring your children were so beautifully dressed to commence Term 2.

Uniform Survey

The Uniform Survey sent home last term will close next Tuesday 2nd May. We will re send the link via COMPASS to families. We would love to have one response per family to provide us with a clear understanding of our communities thoughts.

Principal
