Fourth Sunday of Easter (YEAR A) - 30 APRIL 2023

Good Shepherd Sunday

FIRST READING

Acts 2:14. 36-41

1 Peter 2:20-25

On the day of Pentecost Peter stood up with the Eleven and addressed the crowd with a loud voice: 'The whole House of Israel can be certain that God has made this Jesus whom you crucified both Lord and Christ.' Hearing this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the apostles, 'What must we do, brothers?' 'You must repent,' Peter answered 'and every one of you must be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. The promise that was made is for you and your children, and for all those who are far away, for all those whom the Lord our God will call to himself.' He spoke to them for a long time using many arguments, and he urged them, 'Save yourselves from this perverse generation.' They were convinced by his arguments, and they accepted what he said and were baptised. That very day about three thousand were added to their number.

The merit, in the sight of God, is in bearing punishment patiently when you are punished after doing your duty. This, in fact, is what you were called to do, because Christ suffered for you and left an example for you to follow the way he took. He had not done anything wrong, and there had been no perjury in his mouth. He was insulted and did not retaliate with insults; when he was tortured he made no threats but he put his trust in the righteous judge. He was bearing our faults in his own body on the cross, so that we might die to our faults and live for holiness; through his wounds you have been healed. You had gone astray like sheep but now you have come back to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 22:1-6. R. v.1

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

1. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit. (R.)
2. He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. (R.)
3. You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. (R.)
4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
for ever and ever. (R.)

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 10:1-10

Jesus said: 'I tell you most solemnly, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold through the gate, but gets in some other way is a thief and a brigand. The one who enters through the gate is the shepherd of the flock; the gatekeeper lets him in, the sheep hear his voice, one by one he calls his own sheep and leads them out. When he has brought out his flock, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow because they know his voice. They never follow a stranger but run away from him: they do not recognise the voice of strangers.' Jesus told them this parable but they failed to understand what he meant by telling it to them. So Jesus spoke to them again: 'I tell you most solemnly, I am the gate of the sheepfold. All others who have come are thieves and brigands; but the sheep took no notice of them. I am the gate. Anyone who enters through me will be safe: he will go freely in and out and be sure of finding pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I have come so that they may have life and have it to the full.'

A VOCATION VIEW—GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

We see in Jesus, the Good Shepherd, the heart of every calling. Everyone is called, and everyone has a vocation in the Church. Please pray that men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call especially to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, and religious life in the Archdiocese of Hobart

Dear Parish family,

This Sunday, the fourth Sunday in Easter, is observed as World Day of Prayer for Vocations, previously known as Good Shepherd Sunday.

The Shepherd is a well-known model for those in leadership in the church, in particular the bishops who are successors of the apostles, beginning with the pope as successor of Peter. It was Peter who Jesus commanded to "feed my sheep". It is an apt sign of leadership as the shepherd walks with the sheep, gathering and leading them at the same time, protecting them from harm and ensuring they are nourished.

In today's Gospel, Jesus likens himself to an image which may appear strange, but at the same time is a comfort to us – the gate through which the sheep enter the fold. In our baptism, we enter the sheepfold through his death and resurrection, sharing his life and mission.

All of us have an integral part to play in the mission of the church, utilising our God given talents in building up the kingdom of God – whether that be in priestly ministry, religious life, marriage or in dedicated lay ministry. In all cases, we place ourselves at the service of others so that they may know, love and serve God as they enter the sheepfold themselves becoming part of God's kingdom.

Today, let's pray in particular for those who are being invited to consider offering their lives in service of others and the building of God's kingdom through a particular vocation. And as we do, let's be grateful for the invitation we have all received in being invited into the sheepfold.

Have a blessed week!

Fr Ben Brooks

From the Parish Treasurer

Now that the Offertory collection has been recommenced at weekend Masses, we would like to recognise that many parishioners no longer use the giving envelopes for their gift to the Parish but now use electronic banking instead. We would like these parishioners to realise that when the collection is taken up with the gifts at the Offertory, their gift is being recognised as well. The Parish will continue to make the giving envelopes available as well as the Tap terminals and accept your gifts either through electronic funds transfer or direct debit. We thank you for your support of the Parish. Please contact the Parish Office if you would like any further information about giving to the Parish.
